

Policy Bulletin 64 has been withdrawn.

The new policy bulletin is due to be issued in the New Year. In the interim, 'Bail flowcharts have been provided to assist in deciding support arrangements for bail cases:

- The applicant was not already in UK Border Agency accommodation before being taken into detention.
- The applicant was already in UK Border Agency accommodation before being taken into detention.
- The applicant has already been released from immigration or police detention and now wishes to access UK Border Agency accommodation as a bail address.

These documents are available by navigating back one page to the 'General' table of contents.