

Annex F

Draft letter explaining that the person is a British overseas territories citizen without the need to be registered or naturalised

Dear

Thank you for your application for British overseas territories citizenship. Citizenship is a matter which can be determined conclusively only by the courts, but from the information provided it appears that you are a British overseas territories citizen.

|Fill in relevant details|

you appear to have become a British Dependent Territories citizen under section 23 of the British Nationality Act 1981 which came into effect on 1 January 1983. You appear to have become a British overseas territories citizen on 26 February 2002.

Production of |list the appropriate documents| should normally be sufficient to establish your citizenship for all ordinary purposes, for example if you wish to apply for a British passport. Please note, however, that additional evidence of identity such as a driving licence, a banker's card or, in the case of a child, a school record may be requested in certain cases.

An application for a British passport should be made to your regional Passport Office. Application forms can be obtained from main Post Offices.

The fee of submitted with your application will be refunded in full shortly.

Yours sincerely